Heart  Spiritual development &amp; character	Aiming to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>➤ Acknowledge, it is a 'given' that all children in school should be safe and happy.</li> <li>➤ Have biblical values but are also open to nurturing the spiritual development of children with some or no faith.</li> <li>➤ Listen to all those around us who feed into the holistic knowledge bed of the children.</li> <li>➤ Ensure children leave Hopton as a polite, well rounded, respectful individuals who have a solid moral compass and thirst for learning and life.</li> </ul>

At Hopton School our school vision is embedded in all that we do. It is our aim for every child at Hopton School to have the opportunity to learn in planned and timetabled Forest School sessions.

Our school vision for Forest School sessions is for every child:

Head

Knowledge & learning

To develop an inquiring mind – through child led “hands-on” experiences where it is safe to ask, be curious and instigate investigations.

To foster a knowledge and connection with the environment – with adults providing resources / a basis of information and enthusiasm for nature.

To be provided with a community for development and learning (FS Principle 6), where adults are facilitators.

Hands

Skills & relationships

To build on their relationships with their peers – with a focus on opportunities for collaboration and communication in play.

To develop confidence and resilience – with opportunities to take risk, achieve in a safe environment and know that it is safe to fail.

To consider each and every child individually to develop holistically and creatively (FS Principle 3) to their full potential.

Heart

Spiritual development & character

To foster the spiritual development of each child – to provide moments of reflection, awe and wonder and a connection with nature.

To enable children to have the freedom choose - learning is led by the children,

To have fun – and bring laughter and smiles to every session!
